REPORTS OF SCHOOL BOARD.

In presenting our annual report, we wish first to thank the townspeople for the appropriation which enabled needed repairs to be made on the schoolhouses. The appearance of both buildings has been much improved ; and we hope work in this direction may continue, as in no way is the progressive spirit of a place more clearly shown than by its public buildings.

There seems to be increasing interest in the welfare of the schools on the part of some of the parents. We wish all could realize that the more harmony there is between home and school life the better the resulting work will be. Even with the most efficient of teachers, much effort is required on the part of parents and pupils to obtain good satisfaction. We think a glance at the Roll of Honor and Average Attendance will show where one improvement might be made.

During the year a few new text-books have been purchased, in order to replace those so badly worn as to be practically useless. Charts for Topical Studies in United States History have been placed in both schools. It has been our aim in providing for the schools to furnish them with appliances which we hoped would enable the pupils to keep up to the standard of neighboring schools, and yet have the expense each year comparatively small. This can only be accomplished by adding some modern supplies each year.

The returns of the truant officer give the number of children between the ages of five and sixteen as thirty-nine; sixteen boys and twenty-three girls.

The three terms of the Hebron school were taught by Miss Celia Jewell. Miss Jewell's work as a faithful, efficient teacher is well known. In visiting her schoolroom, one is always impressed with the pleasant relation existing between teacher and pupils.

The three terms of the E. Hebron school for 1900 were taught by Miss Lillian Mason. Miss Mason is a teacher well adapted to her position, and as such we feel that the school has been a success, and brings nothing but pleasant remembrances.

ROLL OF HONOR.

SPRING TERM.—Mabel Smith, Addie Smith, Edna Smith, Willie Smith, Nina Jesseman, Claude Jesseman, Ethel Braley, Rosa Adams, Winnie George, Florence George, Mary Russell, Nina Sanborn, Edna Sanborn, Alberta Sanborn, Lamay Sanborn, Ruby Sanborn.

FALL TERM.—Winnie George, Mary Russell, Ruth Russell, Edna Sanborn, Alberta Sanborn, Lamay Sanborn, Ruby Sanborn, Aquilla Morse.

WINTER TERM.—Kate Sanborn, Edna Smith, Marion Keyes, Nina Jesseman, Claude Jesseman, Syd Huckins, Willie Smith, Florence George, Ona Morse, Aquilla Morse, Mary Russell, Ruth Russell, Alberta Sanborn, Lamay Sanborn, Ruby Sanborn.

LIBRARY TRUSTEES' REPORT.

Again we are called upon to make our annual report. A number of new cards have been taken during the year by people out of town, and the interest in reading in our own town seems to be on the increase. The books have been well used.

Mrs. J. M. Wilson gave $10 and Mr. Ned Wilson $5 for purchasing books. Mr. E. D. Hardy of Washington, D. C., and Miss Randlett of Somerville, Mass., have each given a book the past year, and the $15 we have had from the town, have made quite an addition of books to our library, which we think have been very much appreciated by the towns people. Thirty-three new books have been added this year.
